

DANIEL CONNELL

"Simply delightful...Masterfully written material" ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ - Scenestr 2025

Daniel Connell is a master of understated charm and observational wit and is one of Australia's best and busiest comedians. His charming and laid-back style puts audiences at ease instantly, allowing him to deliver killer punchlines they might not otherwise see coming. Known for his dry humour, warm presence, and sharp storytelling, he has become a staple of the Australian comedy circuit.

With a style that resonates across demographics and avoids polarising material, Daniel is a trusted choice for corporate events, awards nights, and private functions.

Daniel's versatility extends to television where he has appeared on multiple TV shows including Have You Been Paying Attention?, The Project, Comedy Up Late, and the Melbourne International Comedy Festival Gala. There was even a cameo in the award-winning hit show Fisk!

Daniel has made a name for himself as a voice-over artist, most notably providing the voice for HBF Health Insurance's "Quokka sh*t" campaign, which aired from 2020 to 2025.

In April, Daniel was awarded the 2025 Piece of Wood Award at the Melbourne International Comedy Festival for his hit show Box-Headed Manbaby. This accolade, known as the comics' choice award, is selected by past recipients such as Claire Hooper, Lawrence Mooney and Tom Gleeson.

Praise for Daniel

"Connell is the master of spinning a good yarn. There was a zing in every tale - no storyline complete without a piquant and hilarious ending." – Artshub

"A comedic masterpiece." - Onya Magazine
