

DANIELLE WALKER

Danielle Walker is a critically acclaimed Australian stand-up comedian known for her whimsical storytelling, offbeat sense of humour, and distinctive blend of heartfelt nostalgia. Hailing from Far North Queensland, Walker's unique perspective and childhood experiences in regional Australia have been central to her comedy, offering audiences a fresh and authentic voice on the national stage.

Walker moved from Townsville to Melbourne to pursue comedy professionally. Within a year, she won the RAW Comedy National Grand Final at the Melbourne International Comedy Festival, Australia's most prestigious open mic competition. This win catapulted her into the national spotlight, earning her recognition for her originality and distinct comedic style. Danielle has reinforced her rising star onstage by winning both Best Newcomer and Pinder Prize award at the Melbourne International Comedy Festival.

Walker's stand-up is marked by its deeply personal storytelling, charm, and vivid imagery. Her material frequently draws from her upbringing in regional Australia, offering a refreshing yet widely relatable comic voice.

She has been praised for her ability to mine laughter from both the bizarre and the bittersweet, weaving heartfelt moments into her sets without ever losing her comedic punch.

While best known for her stand-up, Walker's comedy skills have translated well to television. In 2023, she reached a broader audience by winning the first season of Taskmaster Australia, showcasing her wit and inventiveness and starred as Marigold Brewer in ABC's comedy series Gold Diggers, earning a Silver Logie nomination for Best Comedy Actress in 2024.

Danielle Walker continues to tour across Australia, regularly performing at top-tier festivals such as Melbourne International Comedy Festival, Adelaide Fringe, Sydney Comedy Festival, and Brisbane Comedy Festival. Her work resonates with fans who appreciate comedy that's heartfelt, unexpected, and uniquely Australian.

With her singular voice and growing list of accolades, Danielle Walker is not just a rising star — she's become one of Australia's most original and beloved stand-up comedians.
